

Check if you can bring your family to Ireland (D-Join Family visa)

Are you an Irish citizen? Or do you have one of the following residence permissions:

- Stamp 5
- Stamp 4
- Stamp 2 PHD student
- Stamp 1 Critical skills
- Stamp 1 General Employment permit – and you have lived in Ireland for 12 months
- Minister of Religion Stamp 3 – and you have lived in Ireland for 12 months
- Non-EEA Researcher on a Hosting Agreement

Then you might be able to sponsor some of your family members to join you in Ireland, if you meet the requirements for a D-visa application.

Do I meet the financial requirement to bring family members?

I am an Irish citizen		I am an Non-EEA National
I can sponsor the following family members:	What I need to prove I earn annually as the sponsor:	I can sponsor the following family members:	What I need to prove I earn annually as the sponsor:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Spouse /civil partner</li> <li>• De facto partner</li> <li>• Minor child</li> <li>• Young dependent 18-23</li> </ul>	Combined annual income of €40,000 before tax for past 3 years (approximately €13.333 per year) No social welfare payments past 2 years.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Spouse / De facto partner</li> <li>Minor child/ Young dependent 18-23</li> </ul>	Minimum annual income of €30,000 before tax for past 2 years Income per week after tax:            1 child - €541            2 children - €642            3 children- €743            4 children - €834            5 children - €960            6 children- €1,076            7 children- €1,212            8 children- €1,308
Elderly dependent parents	1 Parent: annual income of €60,000 for past 3 years after tax plus health insurance 2 Parents: annual income of €75,000 for past 3 years after tax plus health insurance.	Elderly dependent parents	1 Parent: annual income of €60,000 for past 3 years after tax plus health insurance 2 Parents: annual income of €75,000 for past 3 years after tax plus health insurance.
*If you receive Disability Allowance you might be exempt from the financial requirement			